SUMMARY OF THE REASONS FOR DECISION:

The DVD Bad Boys is classified as:
Objectionable except if the availability of the publication is restricted to persons who have attained the age of 16 years.

The DVD Bad Boys contains a feature previously examined and classified in 35mm film format by the Office of Film and Literature Classification. The 35mm film was classified as "Objectionable except if the availability of the publication is restricted to persons who have attained the age of 16 years or who are accompanied by a parent or guardian", with the descriptive note "Contains violence". This decision was registered on 8 May 1995.

The DVD contains additional components such as behind the scenes footage and numerous depictions of guns and explosives being used to destroy a variety of objects. Within the context of this feature, the nature of the additional depictions on the DVD and the impact of the medium in which it is presented make a higher restriction necessary. The additional elements mean that the availability of the publication is likely to be injurious to the public good unless restricted to persons 16 years of age and over.
